

BIANCA OLTHOFF SESSION NOTES

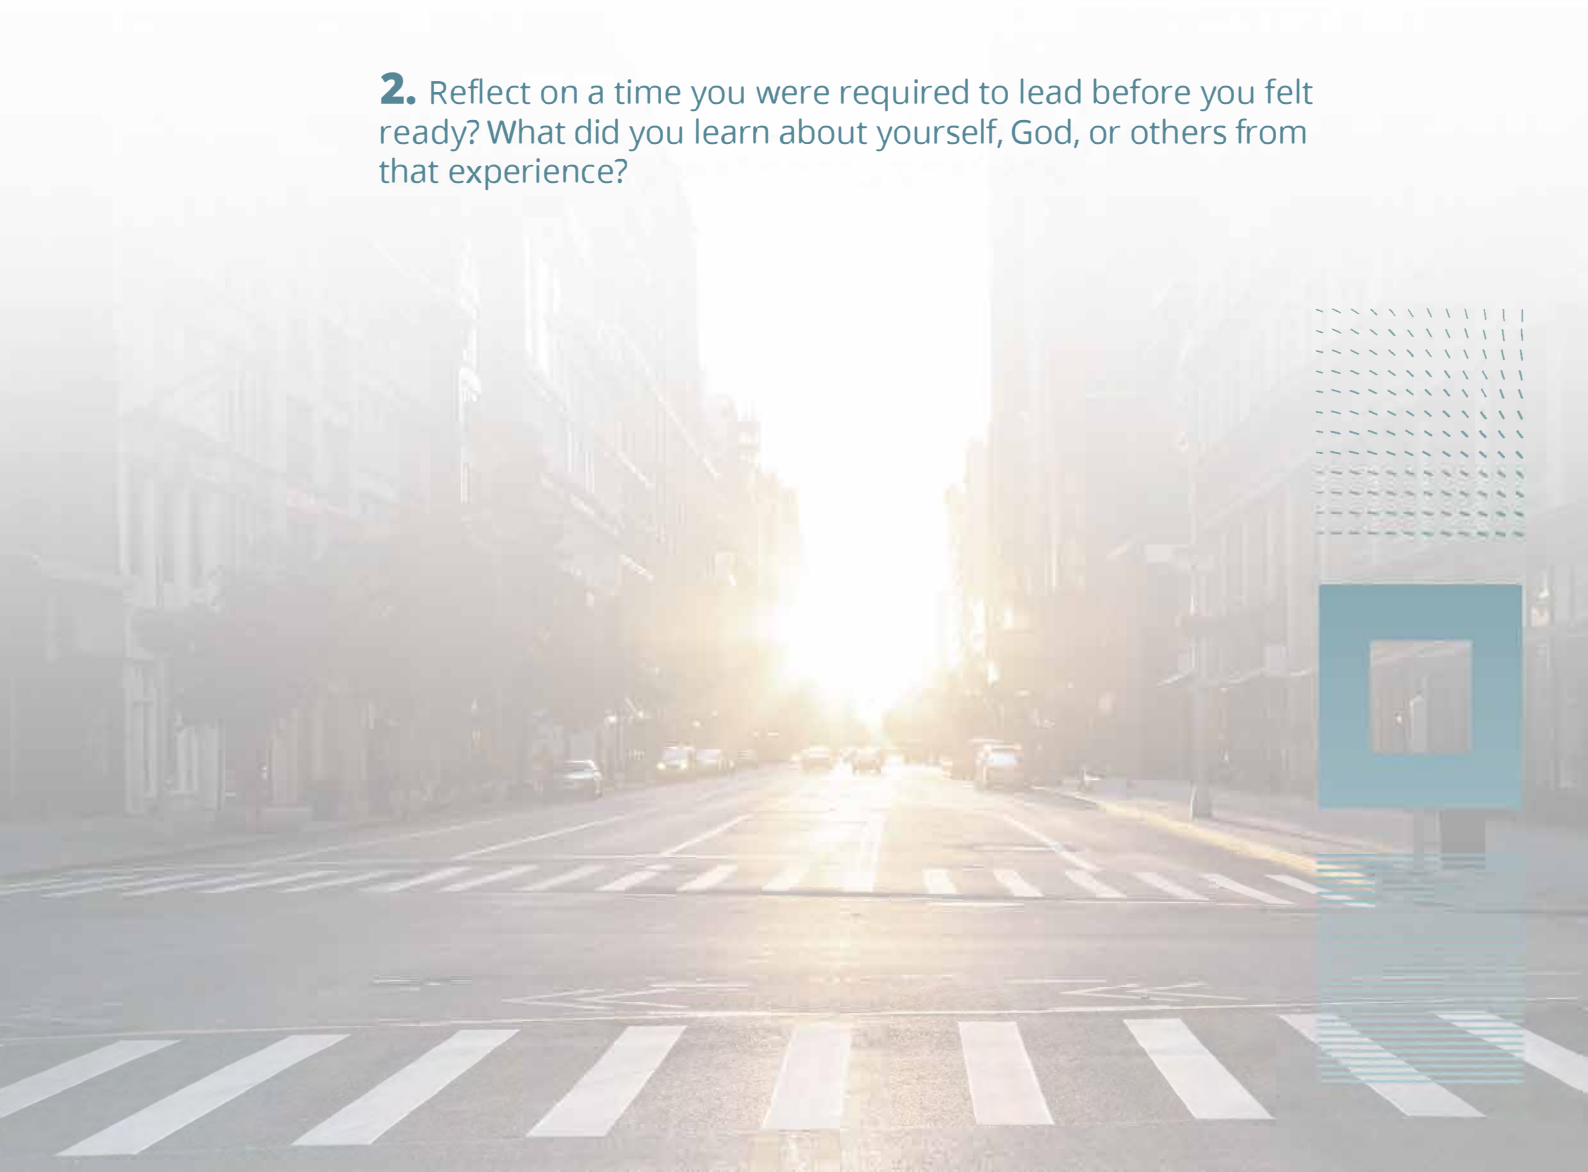

Bianca Juarez Olthoff is a TCW advisor as well as a writer and speaker. She is in love with two men: Jesus and her husband, Matt. Bianca spends her week working as Chief Storyteller for The A21 Campaign, an anti-human trafficking organization, and as the Creative Director for Propel Women. She loves having dance parties in the living room with her two stepchildren or cooking meals for friends.

“When leadership chooses you, you choose to lead”

PERSONAL REFLECTION

1. Where in your life do you hear God's calling to lead?
2. Reflect on a time you were required to lead before you felt ready? What did you learn about yourself, God, or others from that experience?

GROUP DISCUSSION

1. Impostor syndrome is the feeling of not being qualified - even if you are. Have you ever been in a place of leadership and can relate?
2. What is something that stood out to you from this talk or inspired you to be a better leader?
3. Interact with this quote - "The crisis may cause you to fear, but you don't have permission to quit." What does this mean? How does it strike you?

NEXT STEPS

What is a place you may have been called to step up and lead? What is something from this message that you would like to apply to that place this week?

"Your crisis does not dictate your capability, your competency, or your commitment. You are a chosen leader, so choose to lead"
