

LIZ BOHANNON

SESSION NOTES

Liz Bohannon is the co-founder of Sseko Designs, a socially-conscious fashion brand that works to create leadership and educational opportunities for women across the globe. She believes that business is a powerful platform for social change and that girls are our future.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

1. What is the dream you are passionate about?
2. Big dreams require small steps and time to see them become a reality. How consistent are you in your decision making and determinations?
3. What is one area you could use a little more resilience when it comes to seeing your dreams become a reality?

GROUP DISCUSSION

What inspired you most about Liz's story?

What are some things you are passionate about? How could you use that passion to make a difference?

NEXT STEPS

What are one or two small opportunities that are in front of you currently that you could use to begin building your dream?

What did Liz mean when she shared “suddenly a very big problem just became 25 faces?” What was it about that moment that changed Liz's perspective on making a difference?

“Finding the solution begins with finding the problem that you want to solve.” Looking around your community, what is one problem that you could use your passion to begin solving?

